God is doing a mighty, mighty work through the Women of the Well and we shall not take the presence of His hand lightly! We give praises to God for the things He is doing through this ministry.

In this issue I want to share some of the blessings that have gone forth. First I want to say “Welcome” to our new collegiate members, Atlanta University Center (AUC) Women of the Well, Exodus Chapter! This evening, November 30th, 47 young women have made the commitment to be advocates for Christ on their campuses. The Exodus Chapter consists of students from Clark-Atlanta University and Spelman College!

In November we held our first Communion Service on the campus of the University of West Georgia and we have 19 students who have made the commitment to Christ and want to be baptized. More information coming soon on the Baptism date! Look at God!

Lastly, we have new leadership in place! Congratulations to Ms. Cheryl Ann Frazier who has been appointed to the position of Assistant Director of Women of the Well, Inc. and Ms. Antwashea Partee who has been appointed as Director of Membership and Financial Services! We are currently interviewing for a Director of Public Relations so if you know anyone with a strong PR/Social Media background and THEY LOVE THE LORD, let us know!

Thank you to those that have supported the Women of the Well over the years! This road has not been easy but it has definitely been WORTHWHILE! I leave you with this scripture that pretty much sums up the Women of the Well venture:

¹ Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stands in the path of sinners, nor sits in the seat of the scornful;

² But his delight is in the law of the LORD, and in His law he meditates day and night.

³ He shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water that brings forth its fruit in its season, whose leaf also shall not wither; And whatever he does shall prosper.

In His Precious Service,

Sherry

AUC Women of the Well

Exodus Chapter

Directions

Preheat the oven to 400 degrees F. Fit a sheet tray with a wire rack and spray with nonstick cooking spray.

Mix together buttermilk, lemon juice, hot sauce, onion, thyme, garlic, salt, and pepper to a large bowl. Add chicken and coat with mixture. Cover with plastic wrap and place in the refrigerator for 3 hours or up to 12 hours.

Mix corn flakes, Parmesan cheese, and thyme together. Season with salt and pepper.

Remove chicken from the marinade, letting the excess drip off, and dredge through the corn flake-Parmesan mixture, pressing to help it adhere.

Place on the wire rack-fitted sheet tray and bake for 45 minutes until golden and crisp.

Cook's Note: Remove the skin to save calories. Soaking chicken in buttermilk leaves the chicken incredibly moist with a delicious flavor.

Would you want to marry YOU?

That's an interesting question that every single (and married) person needs to ask themselves.

Would you really want to marry you?

If you are a man then try to think like a woman and honestly ask yourself, "If I were a woman, would I want to marry me?"

If you are a woman then try to look through a man's eyes and ask yourself, "If I were a man, would I want to marry me?"

You know you better than any other human.

You know how you are. You know the secrets and the quirks. You know the likes, dislikes, strengths and weaknesses of your inner soul. You know YOU even if you don't admit the truth.

If you are already married then you need to ask yourself, "Would I really want to stay married to me if I could walk away with no strings attached?"

If the answer in any scenario is "No," then perhaps it's time for change.

So...

Would you?
